OUR CORE VALUES

From the Campus Pastor

The church, where a friend of mine is pastor, is going through a major project of digging around the entire foundation to stop water infiltration. He was lamenting how the project has gotten messy because of all the junk that was underground and the contractor has cut un-marked old pipes, severed the cable line and nicked the gas line.

There is a parable here. When we meet people each day, we usually assume that what we see is what we get. But sometimes the most important knowledge is well hidden. Sometimes or oftentimes, there is “junk” lurking to complicate our encounter. We experience her as stand-offish and do not know that any intimacy conjures up long ago memories of unwelcome touch by an uncle. He has a hair-trigger temper, and we do not see the hours of bullying which warped him. She is distant because she is struggling with her work environment. A song plays in the background on TV and we find ourselves crying. Only later, do we realize it was our mother’s favorite. A hymn in church brings out a tear from a long ago grief.

William Faulkner wrote, “The past is not dead, it is not even past.” It is good to be aware of how the past—both our own and that of others—continues to affect the present. There is “junk” or fragments of our past which continue to complicate our interactions. Just remembering that can help us bring more grace to our relationships.

Let us strive to welcome one another with openness, grace, mercy and love. After all, this is the way Jesus welcomes us.

Peace in Christ,
Pastor Mark

We are excited to announce our Renew300 Capital Campaign to renew our building on 300 East Rosemary St. This campaign will seek to renovate and renew our Ministry Center to help further and expand our ministry together as a community of faith.

Renew300 Capital Campaign Update

This is a friendly reminder to turn in your Commitment Cards for Renew300. So far, we have received 127 pledges totaling $870,072 (three-year commitment). This number does not include some previous generous donations to Renew300 that bring us over $1 million in total. We are over halfway to our goal! Turn in your commitment ASAP so that we can move forward with plans to renew our building and grow our ministries.

Pledge cards and envelopes are available in the Narthex in the Worship Center or in the church office.

Our picnic will begin shortly after worship. BBQ and drinks will be provided. Please bring folding chairs or a blanket to sit on, as well as a side dish or dessert to share. God Loves Geeks gathers again Sunday, October 1

Our God Loves Geeks book club will gather again Sunday, October 1 at 6:00 PM at Holy Trinity to discuss "Five Fists of Science" by Matt Fraction. If you like to geek out on movies, graphic novels, sci-fi and fantasy, then this is the group for you. Feel free to join us even if you haven't read the book. For more information and details, contact Pastor Will.

WORKS OF ART – GIFTS OF LOVE is presented by the Peace by Piece Quilting Ministry of Holy Trinity. Some of the quilts made this year will be on display in the Art Gallery until November, with all quilts for sale for $100 each. The money will be used for supplies.

The Quilters (established in 1993) meet on Tuesday mornings (weekly) and Sunday evenings (bi-weekly). We make 60" x 80" quilts for Lutheran World Relief, smaller quilts for Ronald McDonald House, and baby quilts for UNC Hospitals and baptisms at Holy Trinity.

For four years, we have held a week-long Quilting with the Grannies camp in the summer for kids nine and older. Each camper makes a personal-sized quilt to take home and helps with a "community quilt" for RMH.

Our thanks to the congregation for supporting this ministry for 24 years! Come quilt with us!

FAITH FORMATION

Sunday School: Classes are held for children 3 years of age through adults. Confirmation class takes place during the Sunday School hour, as well. Join the Adult Class for “What does the Reformation have to do with me?” led by Luther scholar, Dr. Scott Hendrix. Next week, Pastor Will is beginning a 5 week course on Lutheranism 101. A Bible Study is also held in Classroom 5, led by Jon Arnold.

Confirmation Mentors: In the next few weeks our Confirmation students will be looking for and asking folks to serve as their Confirmation Mentors. Mentors are encouraged to attend a party on Sunday, October 8 at 4:00 PM in the Fellowship Hall to get to know their student or to get re-acquainted. Mentors’ responsibilities include being a friendly face in the congregation to your student, praying for them and showing a general interest in their life. You should be honored if a youth approaches you and asks you to serve as their mentor. They are encouraged to look for someone whose faith they admire and they feel a connection with (besides a family member or pastoral staff). Serving as a mentor is an academic-year commitment. Please prayerfully consider saying yes to our Confirmation youth if asked to serve.

Confirmation Mentor and Student Party, Sunday, October 8 at 4:00 PM in Fellowship Hall. All confirmation students and their mentors are invited to attend.

Faith and Science at Holy Trinity!

Holy Trinity is committed to engage questions and conversations that are relevant to our lives and culture. Over the last few years, we have had book studies, Sunday School panels and Question and Response events, and we plan to do more of these in the near future.

We are now in the second year of our STEAM grant (Science and Theology for Emerging Adult Ministries) and our team is working hard to stay engaged with this important topic and realm for life and faith.

Mark your calendar for these upcoming events:

Coffee and Cookie Drop-In for Students, Thursday October 26, 5:30 PM in the Holy Trinity Reception Hall. This event is to share what we have learned so far with our grant and to engage any and all curiosities and questions about faith and science.

On Sunday, November 19, at 7:00 PM Holy Trinity will host speaker and author Dr. Heidi Russell. Dr. Russell is the author of the book "Quantum Shift; Theological and Pastoral Implications of Contemporary Developments in Science" and is associate professor at the Institute of Pastoral Studies of Loyola University Chicago.

Let Pastor Will know if you would like to help with these events.

The "Get LOST" group met last Sunday and had a cross-generational group of eleven in attendance! For those who would like to join us for our next gathering of watching and discussing the TV show LOST (now on Netflix) on October 8, please watch Episodes 4-8 of Season 1 before our meeting. Sixth graders through adults are welcome!

New Book Group this Fall

LUTHERAN CAMPUS MINISTRIES

Good morning, friends in Christ!

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” -Jeremiah 29:11

This verse helps us through challenges like school, personal problems, and doubting faith. We are struck by how many times this verse says the word “plan”. We often try to craft our own plans, and they may or may not work out in our favor, but this verse comforts us to know that God always has a definitive plan for us. -

Rebecca Agner & Kristen Lavery

I hope you get to join us for our events this week!

Bible Study

Join us for weekly Bible Studies on Mondays at 7 pm and Thursdays at 8 pm. We’re going to be talking about thought-provoking topics, and it will surely help you take a break from school to think about the ways that God works in our lives.

Wednesday night worship & meal

Student worship is held on Wednesdays at 5:30 PM in the upstairs Reception Hall of the Campus Center (300 E. Rosemary Street). Pastor Mark will come with the van to the parking lot between Ehringhaus and Koury at 5 to pick students up.

TV Show Bible Study

We have begun our TV show Bible Study on Parks and Recreation, which is on Sundays at 7 in the Campus Center. Keep your eyes peeled for potential dinner plans beforehand!

Adopt-a-student

Adopt-a-student is a wonderful program in HTLC. You will be matched with a congregation family that will do fun things with you and help you to feel more at home and connected with the people in our church community. Not only that, but you may be matched with someone who has a career similar to your interests!

Listserv

Please email me at mariea@email.unc.edu if you would like to be added to the weekly email list. You will get more thorough updates on all the happenings!

Good luck on all of those midterms! It can be stressful around this time; so, you are encouraged to come to the Campus Center to hang out and receive hugs and study together when you can! If you have any questions, concerns, or need anything at all, please don’t hesitate to contact me.

Here are three ways to donate to Hurricanes Harvey and Irma relief:

- Donate through HTLC via check: Make your check payable to “Holy Trinity Lutheran Church” and print “Hurricane Harvey/Irma relief” on the memo line.
- Donate through HTLC online via the HTLC website: Click on the Online Giving icon; use the Congregation-Other category and type “Harvey/Irma relief” or “Flooding” in the adjacent text box.
- Donate directly to Lutheran Disaster Response via the ELCA website (through the HTLC mail link, or other access).

For ways 1 and 2, HTLC will collect the donations and at some point will write a check to Lutheran Disaster Response. Contributions will appear on the donors’ annual HTLC giving statements.

Donations made directly to Lutheran Disaster Response will be acknowledged by the ELCA.

Please note: Any checks received by HTLC made payable to “Lutheran Disaster Response” will be forwarded to the ELCA. The UNC Hospitals Bereavement Support Services is offering a Community Grief Recovery Group this fall. The group is free of charge and open to anyone grieving a death regardless of faith background.

Facilitated by Chaplains Heidi Gessner and Darryl Owens, this group will focus on sharing and moving toward healing in a safe and supportive setting. Some people join a support group to help them through their initial grieving process while others join years after their loved one's death. This social support facilitates healthy grieving and often reduces feelings of isolation and loneliness. We will meet at Carolina Pointe II, a UNC facility, 6011 Farrington Road, 1st floor, Chapel Hill, 27517 for seven consecutive weeks which began on Monday, September 18 from 6:30-8:00 and ending on October 30, 2017. Please contact Heidi Gessner, UNC Bereavement Coordinator at 919-966-0716 or hgessner@unch.unc.edu.

Additional Grief Support Groups are posted on the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall.

New Series Starts: Beginning October 3, Growing thru Grief will be offering the fall six-week Introduction to Grief Series. William Hollowman, Manager of Duke Hospice Bereavement Services, is the presenter. Here are the topics:

- October 3: Dimensions of Grief/ What is Normal?
- October 10: Experiencing the Pain of Loss
- October 17: Difficult Emotions
- October 24: Remembering
- October 31: Important Events
- November 7: Reinvesting in the Future

Growing thru Grief is a free, open, confidential program sponsored by a coalition of area religious and civic organizations to provide support and comfort to those who mourn. Following the presentation, we will break into small group discussions. Meetings are held year-round on Tuesdays. Come to St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 1200 W. Cornwallis, at 4 pm for coffee and cookies. The meeting starts at 4:30 and ends by 6.

Fresh Fruit donations for TABLE - The Outreach Ministry invites you to make fresh fruit donations (bags of apples and oranges) for TABLE for the backpack program. Our friends at TABLE are filling 200 backpacks a week. This will help provide the children in our community with healthy food to ease their hunger. Please consider donating a bag of fresh apples or oranges on the first Sunday of each month to support TABLE. TABLE's mission is to provide healthy, emergency food aid every week to hungry preschool, elementary, and middle school children living in Chapel Hill and Carrboro, NC.

Thank You Notes

Dear Holy Trinity Lutheran Church,

We appreciate your recent donation to TABLE!

On August 21, 2017, TABLE gratefully received a donation of 7.1 pounds of food, which feeds about 1 local kid for one week. ...

TABLE NEWS:

This year, TABLE fed the most number of children we ever have during the summer with up to 480 children participating weekly! Over 300 of our kids received their food directly at their apartment home through door-to-door deliveries. This requires many hands-on volunteers driving all over Chapel

Hill and Carrboro! One volunteer recently delivered bags of nonperishables and fresh product to several children in one home. One of the little boys who opened the door saw our volunteer and exclaimed, “We get to eat today!!” This is why we do what we do.

Best wishes,
Your friends at TABLE

Dear Friends,
We would like to express our deepest gratitude for your recent donation of $1,000.00 to Inter-Faith Council for Social Service. Gifts like yours provide the financial and moral support we need to continue our mission, and no goods or services were received in return for your contribution.

In 1963, a group of seven local women united to address the conditions of poverty in Chapel Hill and Carrboro through the coordinated efforts of volunteers. More than five decades later, IFC continues to rely on the local community to provide the funds and volunteer support we need to continue our work providing food, shelter, assistance, and advocacy for our neighbors who depend on it. ...

We are honored to have recently joined IFC and are inspired every day by the tireless work of our members, volunteers, and staff in addressing both the causes and consequences of poverty and homelessness. We are excited to partner in these efforts with donors like you who answer the call to support us in so many ways.

With your generosity, we will continue to make Chapel Hill-Carrboro a better place to live and a place we are proud to call home.

In community,

Jackie Jenks
Executive Director

Anna MacDonald
Director of Development

P.S. We hope you will join us in dining out on November 14 for RSVVP, when restaurants donate 10 percent of the day’s proceeds to IFC. A list of participating restaurants will be on our website in October!
