

The Rosemary Thymes

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church

Lutheran Campus Ministry

March 11, 2018

Welcome to Holy Trinity Lutheran Church & Lutheran Campus Ministry, a Reconciling in Christ congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

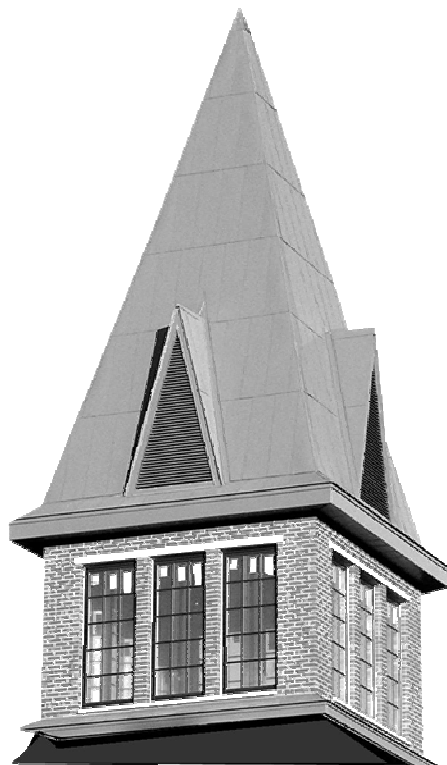

Restrooms are located in the back hallway. A single restroom is also adjacent to the Cry Room.

The Cry Room is available for those in need of a quiet space.

Handicapped accessible parking is available in the back parking lot. An elevator is available on the Ground Floor at the rear of the building.

Wheelchairs, hearing assistance devices, and activity bags for children are available from the ushers. Staffed nurseries for infants and toddlers, located behind the nave, are available during both morning services and Sunday school.

The Sanctuary Lamp burns continuously to remind us of God's constant presence in our lives.

OUR MISSION

Loving God, Loving Neighbors

OUR VISION

From the Cantor

Lament isn't something that comes easily to us these days. Some of the more superficial cousins of lament seem omnipresent in our society – complaining, frustration, displeasure with this political party or that one, etc. But truly profound lament, found most readily in the Psalms, seems out of place in a society that values positivity and success. Take Psalm 137, for example – a psalm of lament sung by Israelites in exile, struggling to find God in their strange surroundings. We might relate, at least in some distant way, to the sentiment expressed, particularly if we have had some poignant experience of homesickness. When we get to the final verse of the psalm, however, most of us likely experience a jarring disconnect. The NRSV translates verse 9, “Happy shall they be who take your little ones and dash them against the rock!” You're likely squirming in your seat right now (perhaps there is a reason that one doesn't appear in our three-year lectionary cycle of scripture readings for worship).

Do psalms which express such violence of emotion have a place in our prayer life? This week, I have been exploring this concept in both my Old Testament and Theology and Music courses. For centuries (and in many places still today), Christians in monastic settings prayed all 150 Psalms each week, excluding none. Are we missing out spiritually by neglecting to include the Psalms that cause us discomfort in our communal prayer? In Life Together, Dietrich Bonhoeffer discusses the Psalms as the prayer of the Body of Christ; when the Christian prays a Psalm, it “lifts him above his personal concerns and allows him to pray selflessly.” We remember that, in joining into Christ's prayer, we are joined to other Christians of all times and places in their prayer (and their pain and suffering). The Psalms of lament reshape us in such a way that we can intensely empathize with the pain of the world around us, even if we ourselves feel removed from it. They remind us that such suffering is perhaps much closer to home than we realize.

On Maundy Thursday, we hear Psalm 88 chanted as we strip the altar, leaving the sanctuary bare. This lament, one of the few that is almost entirely devoid of words praising God, prepares us to enter into the pain of the crucifixion and, therefore, more fully live into the resurrection. It helps us to feel the depths of despair that Christ endured while simultaneously understanding the glory of the cross. It's not too late to adopt a Lenten discipline to deepen our walk with Christ into Holy Week. Spend time slowly reading and meditating on psalms of lament, allowing them to invite you more fully into the Body of Christ.

In Christ,
Laura

Our campaign to renovate and renew our Ministry Center on 300 East Rosemary Street is moving forward, and we are excited about how Renew300 can help us continue to grow in our ministry and mission. Members of our Renew300 Leadership Team are meeting with our architects later this month to decide on final plans, and we are getting closer to a possible reconstruction start date — hopefully in early 2018.

Through pledges, contributions, grants and already existing renovation funds, we are excited to announce we have raised $1,150,730!

Our Finance Team believes we can borrow a small amount from our bank to get us closer to our 1.8 million dollar goal; but we do not want to raise our monthly mortgage payment. To achieve our goals, we still have some fundraising to do to fulfill all the plans we would like to do with our Ministry Center.

A family in our congregation has generously given an extra $50,000 on top of their original gift for Renew300. They would like to challenge the congregation to do what they can do to give extra to the campaign, as well.

Can you give an extra $10? $100? $1000?

Right now, with the funds in hand and our pledged amount, we can and will renovate the Ministry Center. With an extra challenge and push from our community of faith, we can fulfill our original plans of building things like showers and an elevator.

If you haven't filled out a pledge card, please do so ASAP.

If you would like to increase your pledge, please contact our bookkeeper in the church office.

If you would like to donate, or give an extra one-time donation to Renew300, you can do so on our website at www.holytrinitychapelhill.org and click the "online giving" link in the middle of the page.

Renew300 – Making Your Contribution

There are several ways you can make your pledged Renew300 contribution:

Pay Online: Go to the HTLC website and click on the Online Donations icon. Select the Renew300 option. Please note: if you pay by credit card the church will be charged a 3% - 4% service fee. By using a checking or savings account for your payment, HTLC will receive 100% of your contribution.

Bank Pay: If you use bank pay, be sure Renew300 will appear on the check.

Pay by Personal Check: check, print of the check. If you envelope to submit a section in the middle of amount of the payment

We rejoice today at the 11:00 am service in the baptism of Jacob Elliot Goodson.

“We welcome you into the Lord’s family!”

Baptism is one of our two sacraments. To lift up its importance, the children will receive several gifts:

- + a candle which they may light every year on the anniversary of this date reminding them to “let their light shine before others”,
- + Luther’s Catechism,
- + a baby quilt made by the quilters, and

Cash: While cash payments are not recommended, if you do pay by cash please submit your payment in an envelope with your name, the amount and “Renew300” clearly printed on the outside.

There has been one change on the 2018 Offering Envelopes. The “Mortgage Reduction” category has been replaced with “Renew300”.

This week at Holy Trinity and LCM

Due to the austerity of the season, there will be no floral arrangements during Lent.

BREAKING NEWS

Spring ahead TODAY! Do not forget to set your clocks one hour ahead.

Breaking News Renew300!

Thank you so much for your helping hands, strong backs, and flexibility as we prepare our building on 300 East Rosemary Street for renovations. We couldn't do all this without you! Here are some reminders of what is coming up in the next few weeks.

* We hope construction can begin the week of March 12. While construction and renovations are taking place, please be mindful of parking for visitors and friends, especially as we get closer to Holy Week and Easter.

* Church Offices are located in the Worship Center. Please contact us if you have any questions about schedules and changes in ministry settings and locations.

We plan to host a "Liturgy of Thanksgiving" for the Ministry Center this Sunday, March 11, after each worship service.

Thank you for your patience, understanding and flexibility as we journey through Renew300 together.

The season of Lent at Holy Trinity

We hope you can be a part of the season of Lent at Holy Trinity. We have curated our Sunday morning, and weekday, worship services so that the 40 days of Lent will be a meaningful way to journey to Holy Week and Easter.

Midweek Lenten Worship - each Wednesday at noon and 7:00 PM and will focus on questions of Faith and Science. Because of the Renew300 Renovation Project, there will be no dinners this year.

Holy Communion Instruction at Holy Trinity

Pastor Will Rose is leading a Holy Communion Instruction class for any youth and children interested in learning more about the sacrament of Holy Communion. This class is for those who have received Holy Communion and they want to learn more or for those preparing to have their "first communion". If interested, let Pastor Will know and he will give the family a book to read together and then do a discussion class after 11:00 worship on Sunday, March 25.

STEPHEN MINISTRY at HTLC

We are proud to announce our first class of Stephen Minister Trainees (Pr. Will Rose, Jane Hall, Mike Krier; Kathy Austin, Bev Craig, Linda Darling, Barbara Eisenstein, Neal Mochel, Nadine Oelke, Jim Shoenbill. Over the next few weeks, they will begin their journey of becoming Christian Care Givers for our congregation and community. They will train in becoming active listeners and learn to walk with those in need of care and support. Lift them up in your prayers as they begin their journey.

Opportunities to Serve during Holy Week

Nearly all opportunities to serve are still available. Please prayerfully consider serving your faith community during our Lenten journey. Deepen the fellowship: invite a friend to serve with you as part of your Lenten journey. To sign up, call or email the church office (919-942-2678; htlc@holytrinitychapelhill.org) or visit the Google Doc at <https://tinyurl.com/yc25mp7u>. Thank you for your service!

Wednesday Lenten Offerings: Holy Trinity has designated its Wednesday Lenten offerings to the refugee resettlement program of Lutheran Services Carolinas. Despite cutbacks to staff and funding, LSC continues to support local immigrants on their path to self-sufficiency. Our donations will help cover the costs of a vital storage unit in Raleigh from which refugee families pick up donated clothes, furniture, and home goods. Freely you have received, freely give (Matthew 10:8).

Soup after Church will be held on Sunday, March 18 after both services. Funds raised go to the ELCA Youth Gathering participants.

Envelope Fundraiser—Please consider giving to our Youth Gathering Envelope fundraiser! Please take a numbered envelope and return it with that amount of money inside. If writing a check, make it to Holy Trinity Lutheran with “Youth Gathering” in the memo line. If giving cash and you want it to be tax deductible, please put your name on the envelope. You may also give your spare change to our box on the Welcome Center table. Seventeen participants will be going to Houston, Texas for the ELCA Youth Gathering this June. We’ve raised $1485 from this fundraiser, thus far; if all envelopes are taken and returned, we would raise $8500. Thanks!

Mark your calendars for our annual Easter Carnival on Sunday, April 8 from 4-5:30 PM. We will have a free Easter Egg Hunt, free carnival games, and hot dogs and baked goods for sale. Funds will go to the ELCA Youth Gathering. Invite your friends and neighbors!

NC Synod Assembly 2018

This year, the Synod Assembly will be held on June 1-2 in Raleigh at the Hilton North Raleigh/Midtown — so, it's practically in our neighborhood. If you are interested in attending and/or becoming a voting member of the 2018 NC Synod Assembly, please let Pastor Will know.

Rally to End Racism in Washington, DC

Join ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton and Bishop Tim Smith at the Rally to End Racism on the National Mall in Washington D.C. on April 4. The NC Synod (ELCA Churches in our state) is sponsoring a bus for the event--leaving the evening of April 3, returning the evening of April 4--from Greensboro and Durham. The cost will be $75 round trip (meals not included). For more information or to reserve a seat, contact GeoRene Jones at 704-680-9559. Bishop Tim encourages your participation!

Reality Ministries Talent Show

Reality Ministries Talent Show at the DPAC, April 23, 2018! This is one of Pastor Will's favorite events all year. The Rose family plans to be there — join us! Don't miss extraordinary community event featuring performers of ALL abilities. The talent show is a memorable evening highlighting the wonderful talents of our community and the unique gifts of many people. Artwork from community members will be on display in the lobby starting at 6:00; the stage performance begins at 7:00 pm.

Link to reserve tickets, <https://www.dpacnc.com/events/detail/reality-ministries-present-2018-talent-show>. If the website says we're SOLD OUT, please call (919-688-7776) or email (julie@realityministries.org); we may have some tickets available off-line.

Last year tickets "sold out," but we ended up with lots of empty seats. We don't want this to happen this year! So please be sure every seat you reserve is used! If you have tickets you realize you won't be using, please call or email Reality ASAP so we can give the tickets to others. We are really hoping for NO empty seats.

Check out the video of our dear friend, Tony from last year's show.

Reality Ministries: Creating opportunities for adults with and without developmental disabilities to experience belonging, kinship and the life-changing Reality of Christ's love.

WORSHIP AND ARTS

Nursery: Our nursery is available in the Worship Center during both services and between services during the Sunday School hour. Feel free to drop your little ones off so that you can participate in adult Sunday School!

Flower Ministry: Volunteers needed! We are starting a new ministry to deliver flowers from our altar arrangements to our members who can't often get to church to enjoy them. Volunteers would be put on a rotation, likely serving once a month and delivering either on Sunday afternoon or Monday. This is a simple way to make a big difference in the way our members are able to stay connected with their church family. Contact Anne Brashear (a_brashear@bellsouth.net) or the church office if interested.

FAITH FORMATION

Adult Sunday School: All classes have been moved to the Worship Center to prepare for our Ministry Center renovation. The Adult Class meets in the Library/Cry Room off of the Sanctuary. The class that used to meet in the Reception Hall will be discussing "God and the Gay Christian" over the next several weeks.

Vacation Bible School will be held with Chapel of the Cross (across Franklin Street) the week of June 18-22 from 8:30-noon. Our theme is "Dare to be Different" based on the book and movie "A Wrinkle in Time." Bible stories will be paired with the story and opportunities for lessons, games, snacks and crafts will be offered. We will need youth and adult volunteers, as well. A google sign up will be available in the weekly email blast. Registration forms will be made available in the next few weeks.

YOUTH NEWS

(6th-12th grades, unless otherwise noted)

Concert at Holy Trinity Raleigh on Sunday, March 18. Join HTLC youth for Agape, a Lutheran musician and rapper, next Sunday afternoon. Agape will be at the ELCA Youth Gathering, so it's an opportunity to gather with other area Lutheran youth for some fun. Our group will meet following the soup lunch and have lunch on our way to Raleigh. Please bring several dollars for lunch—the group will decide where to go to eat. We should return by around 5:30 PM.

OUTREACH MINISTRY

Inter-Faith Council (IFC)

The IFC items for the month of March are canned tuna and meats. Bring the month's items to support the IFC's pantry; donations are given directly to families in need. Monetary donations can be dropped off at the IFC office in Carrboro (110 W. Main St.) or at the church office. Thank you for your support!

Inter-Faith Council Volunteers

TODAY (Supper): TBD

March 18 (Lunch): Reed Family

If you have any questions, please contact Bruce Allen (919.815.9089). We have a lot of open dates (we cook 2 meals per month). It's easy, fun and no experience is necessary (we can train you). Sign up now before all the good slots are taken. To sign up, please use our signup link (<http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0e45a9a92aa2fe3-ifccommunity>) or contact Bruce Allen at bruceallen@nc.rr.com or 919.815.9089.

LUTHERAN CAMPUS MINISTRY

Good morning, friends in Christ!

{RAD BIBLICAL WISDOM}

"The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a mighty savior, who will rejoice over you with gladness, and renew you in his love." ~Zephaniah 3:17

How are we already in midterm season?? It can be a stressful time, but I pray that you can join us for some of our events!

Wednesday Worship: Faith and Science Service

Come at 5:30 to HTLC (this building) on Wednesday for student worship and dinner afterwards! This week, we will be having a service especially focused on the roles that faith and science play in our lives and how they can coexist. This is a reminder that all activities, including worship, will be held in the new building across the street from the campus center due to impending renovations.

Leadership Applications

Is it really that time of year already?? Leadership applications will be due the midnight of the 28th! Now is the time to please prayerfully consider applying to help lead this community of faith and allow God to steer LCM through you. Please do also be thinking of those who you think would be well-fit for a position on the team, and encourage them to apply :)

Spring Break

I hope you are just as excited as I am for Florida! This is a reminder that the full payment of $75 (aside from the $25 down payment and only if you are NOT participating in Journeys) is due to Samuel, Aidan, or Pastor Mark before departing on the 9th. Extra copies of the itinerary and packing list are available in the new campus center.

Journeys

Meet here at 6 on Sunday nights to have discussion about faith and vocation. Plus, if you're going on the Spring break trip, it will give you a pretty nice stipend J

Bible Study

Bible Study this semester will meet at 7:30 pm on Tuesdays and 6:30 pm on Thursdays. Think about meeting with your prayer group soon- t's prime time to meet for Yopo with this weather that we've been having!

Listserv/Groupme

Please email me at mariea@email.unc.edu if you would like to be added to the weekly email list. You will get more thorough updates on all the happenings!

I am so glad to be able to see you guys throughout the week! Best wishes for the semester, and I hope to see you around church and the campus center!

Peace,

Allison Jones

There is still an opening for the beach retreat; if you are interested, please contact Jill (JRidkyB@gmail.com). This is a special time for renewal! House includes an elevator and incredible views!!

Hello All,

My name is Junessa Sladen-Dew and I am a member of Lutheran Campus Ministry at Holy Trinity. I am also a volunteer in the UNC Birth Partners Doula program at the hospital - a volunteer-run organization that provides birth support to under-represented mothers across North Carolina. Part of our program is to give every mother we serve, a newborn hat - but we can't keep up with the demand! Therefore, I am reaching out to our faith community to see if there are any folks who like to knit or crochet, and would be willing to help us with this project for the mothers and their children. For questions, information and knitting directions, please email me at jsladendew@gmail.com or call at 919-448-4350! Thank you and God Bless!

Thank You Notes

Dear Pastor Will and congregation,

Your gift of $1,000.00 is vital to continuing IFC's mission to confront the causes and respond to the effects of poverty in our community. Thank you for your generosity and partnership.

Without you, homeless families would literally have nowhere to go in Orange County but the streets. Even more kids would open the refrigerator after school to find it empty. There would be no Community Kitchen serving hungry men and women who live and work in Chapel Hill and Carrboro. Without you, our elderly neighbors who are on a fixed income and unable to pay their utility bills this winter would sit in the dark and cold. You help meet real needs every day. ...

In community,

Jackie Jenks

Appa MacDonald

Executive Director (Thank you so much!) Director of Development (With gratitude!)

Dear Outreach Committee,

Thank you so much from all the families at Carrboro Elementary who benefitted from your generous donation of Food Lion cards this holiday season. Through your generosity we were able to help many families purchase food over the holiday break and make their winter season much warmer.

Thank you again with much appreciation and gratitude.
